ACTING AS BURIAL AUTHORITY, RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Plans of the Cemetery showing the divisions into consecrated and unconsecrated portions and the sections thereof, with grave spaces thereon numbered, and deposited at the Office of the Registrar of the Cemetery, where a copy of the bye-laws and a table of fees and every other information may be obtained on application.
2. Each division in the Cemetery is divided into sections:- A.B.C.D.E.F.G.H.I.J.
In section A.B.C.D.E.F.G.H.I. and J a person may purchase and have exclusive right of burial therein for 75 years.
A deed of grant will be furnished in respect of each grave purchased.
3. A person who purchased the right of freehold in any section shall not convey, assign or transfer such right without the sanction of the Burial Authority having been first obtained, but any person having purchased such right shall be at liberty to inter a body on payment of the appropriate fee.
4. When exclusive rights of a grave have not been purchased; i.e interment in an ordinary grave selected by the Registrar, the undertaker shall be responsible for obtaining a signature from the next of kin recognising the fact that some other person will be interred in the same grave. The necessary form will be supplied by the Registrar and this signed form will be filed with the Notice of Interment.
5. Not less than forty eight' hours previous notice for re-opening, and not less than thirty six hours' notice for interments must be given. Seven clear days' notice must be given if a vault or brick grave is required. Provided:-
 - (i) that such notice may be dispensed with by order of the Burial authority if the preservation of the public health so requires.
 - (ii) that such notice be given in a form provided by the Burial authority (Notice of Interment) and the person giving the notice furnish the Coroner's or the Registrar of Births and Deaths Certificate for the Disposal of the body; with information as to where the death occurred; the section and space in which it is intended the interment shall take place; the name of the minister to officiate; the day and hour for the interment, the size of the coffin duly certified by the undertaker; and in the case of a purchased grave, the consent in writing of the owner. Times allowed for burial, 9.00am to 4.00pm Monday to Friday; No burials on Saturday and Sunday.

6. Each grave in the Cemetery shall be 8 feet by 4 feet, interments and caskets interred at the approval of the Burial Authority.
7. All earthen graves shall be dug, filled in and turfed over by the person appointed by the Burial Authority. No permanent mounds will be allowed. All vaults and brick graves, are to be made and opened at the expense of the parties requiring the same under the superintendence of the person appointed by the Burial Authority. Walls of the vaults must be 9 inches thick all round. The walls of brick graves must be 4 1/2 inches thick and the interior of the grave must be rendered with water proof cement rendering, and they must be built to within 24 inches of the surface.
8. Nobody shall be buried in any vault or walled grave, unless the coffin be separately intombed in an airtight manner, by properly cemented stone or brick work, which shall never be disturbed. Coffin of wood, or wood derivative only will be allowed on graves in which exclusive right of burial has not been purchased in perpetuity.
9. Every person who, in the Cemetery buries a body in a grave space shall pay to the Burial Authority, as a charge for the use of the Cemetery, fees in accordance with the scale of fees set forth in the Table of Fees and Charges.
10. Every person, who in the Cemetery erects a grave stone, monument or memorial shall submit to the Registrar of the Cemetery, if supplied and installed by a reputable stone mason, a drawing showing the form and materials of such grave stone, monument memorial together with a copy of the inscription intended to be cut thereon, which must be approved by him prior to the erection of fixing of same. All such grave stones, monuments and memorials shall only be allowed in the Cemetery subject to approval of the Burial Authority, and must be marble, stone or slate except with the express consent of the Burial Authority. No monument to exceed 3 feet 9 inches in height. Every person who in the Cemetery erects a monument, memorial, headstone or kerb (not being a receptacle or article chargeable under bye-law 13) shall pay to the Burial Authority for the privilege of doing so, the fees in accordance with the scale set forth in the Table of Fees and Charges. Registrar to be informed of the date of fixing in advance.
